

PART I NAME, PURPOSE, SECRETARIAT AND DURATION

Article 1- Name of Organisation

1.1 A civil, non-profit making sports association, known as the ASIAN SAILING FEDERATION (ASAF), registered in an Asian jurisdiction, to be governed by this Constitution.

1.2 The registered address for ASAF will be as decided from time to time by the executive committee.

1.3 ASAF, as the Continental Association for Sailing in Asia, will be a Continental Member of World Sailing (WS) and will fulfil and maintain the obligations that entails.

1.4 ASAF will be the nodal body to correspond with Olympic Council of Asia for the sport of sailing

Article 2 – Aims and objectives of the Federation

2.1 ASAF has the ultimate objective to be an organisation with all Asian National Sailing Federations as full members. This organisation shall endeavor to coordinate and develop the sport of sailing by exchange of information, and decisions on matters of mutually agreed common interest.

2.2 ASAF has the following main aims and objectives:

- (a) To promote the practice of sailing, promoting and exchanging knowledge and experiences with the National Sailing Federations of Asian nations.
- (b) To promote the coordination and unification of policies for the sport, including those for ASAF Events and other international competitions.
- (c) To establish and/or coordinate the yearly Asian regatta calendar in the respective categories.
- (d) To promote and extend the exchange of Race Officials.
- (e) To promote the training of technicians.
- (f) To promote youth exchanges and common training camps for youth.
- (g) To relate with organisations which represent the sport of sailing or parts of it in Asia.
- (h) To help organize Asian Games and any other events as per OCA directive including appointment of technical delegate/s and officials as required.

2.3 ASAF shall not be a member of any organisation, unless that organisation is directly linked to sport, nor shall it represent the policies, or interests, of its individual members. It shall not act on matters which are the responsibility of MNAs acting within their own territory, or in respect of their membership of WS.

Article 3 - Secretariat

3.1 ASAF will appoint a Secretary General and/or Executive Secretary, who will be nominated by the Executive and approved by a General Assembly. There will be no limit to the terms of office providing the person continues to fulfil the responsibilities of the role to the satisfaction of the Executive Committee and the General Assembly. The role and responsibilities of the Secretary General are defined in Article 23 of the Constitution. These may be amended from time to time as seen fit by the Executive. Such changes will be reported to the General Body at the following Annual General Assembly.

3.2 The post of Secretary General and/or Executive Secretary need not be a full-time role.

3.3 The remuneration of the Secretary General and/or Executive Secretary will be set and agreed by the Executive.

Article 4 - Duration

4.1 ASAF is organised for an unlimited duration and will only be dissolved by resolution of a Special General Assembly or in any of the events contemplated by Law.

PART 2 MEMBERS, RIGHTS AND DUTIES

Article 5-Members

5.1 ASAF membership consists of those National Sailing Associations henceforth called Asian MNAs who represent the sport of sailing in their respective Asian nations. These nations are recognised by the International Olympic Committee (IOC) and the Olympic Council of Asia (OCA) (hereafter called Asian NOCs). These MNAs will aspire or be members of World Sailing.

Article 6 - Admission of Members

6.1 The membership of ASAF is voluntary. All Asian MNAs which are interested in the aims and objectives of ASAF may become members.

6.2 Membership of ASAF shall only be acquired when the application has been submitted and accepted by the General Assembly and the appropriate fees have been paid.

Article 7- Obligations of Members

7.1 Asian MNAs have the following obligations:

- (a) To comply with the provisions of this Constitution.
- (b) To pay affiliation fees and any other dues as required.
- (c) To notify the Secretary General of any changes relating to key personnel within MNAs and any changes of addresses, both postal and electronic.

Article 8 - Rights of the Members

8.1 Asian MNAs have the following rights, provided affiliation fees and any other dues have been paid:

- (a) To participate in ballots and deliberations of the General Assembly and in the election of the members of the Executive Committee. The President of an Asian MNA or his appointee shall have the right to attend, vote and speak at meetings. The appointment of a person to act in his name shall be placed on record in writing to the Secretary General before the meeting is opened and shall only be valid for each respective Assembly. Each Member National Authority shall have one vote. Such vote is transferable provided that the person holding that vote shall have only one vote and he is the member of that MNA. (one more representative who is also the President Nominee would be allowed to sit in the deliberations of the General Assembly but will not be allowed to vote). No more than two nominees shall be allowed to sit in each AGM representing one MNA.

- (b) To receive information on the activities of ASAF and, particularly, the yearly schedule of its sports and social activities.
- (c) To participate in any sports and social activities organised by ASAF.
- (d) To take advantage of the services of ASAF.
- (e) To nominate and elect candidates to fill vacancies on the Executive Committee
- (f) To have the accounts inspected and audited by a qualified auditor.
- (g) To ratify the appointment of the Treasurer, who shall be nominated by the Executive Committee.
- (h) Member National authorities shall have up to 30 (thirty) days to propose amendments to minutes of General Meetings once they are published on the ASAF website and circulated through electronic media. Once the 30 days have passed any unaffected minutes will be taken as being approved. Only proposed amendments will be taken forward to the following Ordinary General Meeting for approval. Any proposed amendments shall be notified to the Secretary in writing, or electronically.

Article 9 - Forfeiture of Membership Status

- 9.1 Forfeiture of the status of member may arise:
 - (a) By resignation of the member.
 - (b) Because of delay exceeding one year in the payment of affiliation fees or other significant dues.
 - (c) By resolution of the General Assembly following repeated infringements of the obligations under this Constitution.
